

HR SEMINAR

On 18th October 2019, a seminar on “Industrial Relations” was held in IISWBM Kolkata where Dr Rajen Mehrotra, an eminent industrialist and educationist with over 40 years of industrial, academic and international civil service experience shared his deep insights and rich experiences with the students of MBA (Day) and MBA (HRM) and enlightened the audience with his resourceful thoughts about the past, present and future relevance of Industrial Relations. Dr Mehrotra who is a veteran, also touched upon the points of temp-staffing, uberisation – the new form of employment and re-emergence of Industrial Relations in organisations. He also gave his views on the labour laws, the labour market, the shift to flexible employment and decrease in formation of labour unions. His speech was briefly followed by a Q-A round where teachers and students interacted with him.

