

HR Seminar

On 6th September'19, the junior batches of IISWBM MBA (Day) and MHRM were graced by the presence of DrUrmilaChakraborty, a faculty of the University of Milan. All the students were enthusiastic about the seminar and owing to her jovial and interesting personality; the entire assembly hall was thrilled and hooked in a few moments. The main theme of her lecture was “Cross-cultural differences”. The students learnt many new concepts like types of culture which is an amalgamation of national, academic, gender, generation and various other factors. She focused her discussion on Indian students and urged listeners to open up and find their inner persona.

To communicate her thoughts clearly, Urmila Ma'am called upon stage some student volunteers for certain situation enactment. This new kind of classroom teaching was both eye-opening and thought-provoking for all the students. The debate session on diverse topics like “What is right, is always right”, “It is our sacred duty to obey our elders”, resulted in all the students shedding their inhibitions and participating in an informative discussion. Lastly, she concluded her lecture by giving insight on several theories of culture.
