

Students of MSW, batch 2021-23 were invited to participate in Kolkata Centre for Creativity 's 4th Annual International Conference 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam', 'Solidarity in a Time of Crises'. It was an enlightening and enriching two-day session. This is based on the actions, which we need to meet the 17th Sustainable Goal. There were eminent speakers from all over the world, like Mr. Gurudas Kulkar (Doctorate in Industrial Ecology, Environmental activist); Mr. Ravi Agarwal (Interdisciplinary Artist, Environmental Campaigner, Writer & Curator); K. S. Radhakrishnan (Artist, Curator and Educator) ; Dr. Kalyan Kumar Chakravarty (Art Historian, Academician, Administrator); Mr. Parmesh Shahani (Award winning author, Curator, LGBTQ inclusion Advocate, Former VP, Godrej India Culture Lab); Mr. Aric Chen (Director, Het Nieuwe Institut, the Institute for Architecture, Design and Digital Culture in Rotterdam, Netherlands); Mr. Adrian Notz (Curator, ETH, AI Centre, Zurich); Ms. Pauline Laravoire (Co - Founder, Y- East) and many more. This session explored our changing relationship with the environment. It was a good opportunity for the students to develop a new bend of mind and expand their social horizon. Overall it was a great experience for them.

