TEACHER'S DAY CELEBRATION : MBA(DAY) 2025

The MBA Day Department of IISWBM celebrated Teachers' Day with great enthusiasm and reverence, paying tribute to the professors whose wisdom and guidance continue to shape the institute's legacy of excellence.

The program began with the presentation of gifts to the respected professors, an expression of gratitude from the students. This was followed by a special moment when a hand-drawn portrait of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, by a student, was presented to the faculty – a heartfelt gesture that received resounding applause from the audience. Soon after, the joyous cake-cutting ceremony took place, symbolizing the sweet bond between teachers and students, greeted again with warm applause.

The occasion was graced by the Head of the Department, MBA Day, and esteemed professors, who addressed the gathering with words of inspiration and encouragement. They expressed deep appreciation for the initiative, commending the creativity, coordination, and sincerity of the students. Their praise filled the hall with pride and made the day truly special. The event became even more memorable when the Head of the Department, MBA Day, graciously distributed sweets to all attending students, a thoughtful gesture that reflected his warmth and care for the students.

A vibrant cultural program followed, featuring soulful songs, graceful dances, moving recitations, and powerful elocutions. Each performance was met with enthusiastic applause, reflecting the energy and dedication of the students. The heartfelt participation created an atmosphere of joy and gratitude, leaving a lasting impression on the faculty.

The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks, where the students acknowledged the constant support of their professors and highlighted the teamwork that made the celebration possible.

The Teachers' Day program stood as a testament to the values of respect, gratitude, and togetherness at IISWBM. With professors praising the celebration as one of the most memorable in recent times, the day marked a shining example of how students' efforts and teachers' blessings come together to create moments of pride and inspiration.
