

ALUMNI MEET OF IISWBM CONCLUDES WITH THE RELEASE OF NOSTALGIUM.

Kolkata: The Indian Institute of Social Welfare and Business Management (IISWBM), Kolkata, hosted its All Department Alumni Meet 2026, bringing together alumni, faculty members and students for an evening of celebration, recognition and networking.

Welcoming the gathering, Director Prof Dr Krishna Murari Agrawal highlighted the institute's legacy as one of India's oldest management institutes and emphasized the importance of alumni engagement in shaping the institution's future.

The event was graced by several eminent personalities including industrialist and Honorary Consul General of Greece in Kolkata Sudhir Jalan, HR leader RP Yadav, Board of Governors member DK Sanyal, and senior journalist Snehasis Sur.

A key highlight of the evening was the felicitation of Sudhir Jalan and RP Yadav, both distinguished alumni of IISWBM, with Lifetime Achievement Awards in recognition of their remarkable professional achievements and contributions to industry and society. Sharing reflections from their journeys, they encouraged students to remain resilient, ethical and forward-thinking in their careers.

Another significant moment of the programme was the release of "Nostalgium 2026," the institute's alumni memorabilia magazine. The publication captures memories, milestones and achievements of the IISWBM community, featuring alumni stories, reflections on the institute's legacy, and moments that celebrate the enduring bond between the institution and its graduates. The magazine serves as a commemorative archive that preserves IISWBM's rich heritage while strengthening connections across generations of alumni.

The event concluded with networking interactions and cultural performances, reinforcing the spirit of lifelong association within the IISWBM fraternity.
